

Why We, HIMALAYA SACRED Do Not Publish Fixed Prices on Our Website

We often receive questions about why fixed prices are not listed on our website. This is intentional.

Every expedition and trek is individually tailored. Because each journey is distinct and every service arrangement is customized to the client's specific needs and preferences, a single published price cannot accurately represent the full scope of what we offer. We therefore provide fair and competitive quotations only after direct consultation.

Key factors that influence the final price include:

- Service arrangements: fully customized to your exact requirements
- Service type: Full Board Service or Basecamp-only Service
- Group size & composition: number of climbers, non-climbers, supporters, guides
- Accommodation standard: hotels in Kathmandu and mountain lodges/tents
- Itinerary adjustments: additional or fewer days, rest days, side trips
- Additional staffing: extra climbing guides, high-altitude workers, kitchen & basecamp personnel
- Special equipment: supplementary oxygen, specific mask/regulator brands
- Season: spring is usually higher cost than summer, autumn or winter
- Dietary requirements: special meals at basecamp or higher camps
- Expert guiding: services of highly experienced, IFMGA/UIAGM-qualified guides (including Gelje Sherpa) and optional mountaineering instruction

The sample itineraries on www.himalayasacred.com are for reference only. Accurate pricing is provided exclusively after we discuss your specific needs and preferences.

Please feel free to contact us for detailed information and a personalized quotation.

We look forward to assisting you with your Himalayan journey.
